

STONER'S GLEN HOA STRUCTURAL IMPROVEMENT POLICY

Any owners making improvements to their homes which involves the moving and/or removal of walls, studs, or supports are required to have a letter from a licensed contractor and/or engineer provided to the board of directors which confirms that the structural integrity of the home will not and has not been compromised as a result of the aforementioned.